mengel sent a link to the web access document

<http://cd-docdb.fnal.gov/cgi-bin/RetrieveFile?docid=5375&filename=CWS%20Content%20Access%20Instructions.pdf&version=1>

This is a minimal description of mounting /web/sites, with SAMBA the preferred protocol.

No overall description of the schedule or migration process.

#2 - 11/17/2015 01:09 PM - Arthur Kreymer

I have started setting up user access to /web/sites/www-numi.fnal.gov
I will get more users from the present AFS ACL.

Pete Rzeminski indicates a likely schedule this week, not yet set.
I will ask for an extension to next Monday Nov 23 .

Documents for the new web management scheme are under ServiceDesk KB0011347

Particularly see the manuals under
Apache httpd/Linux Web Service

#3 - 12/02/2015 04:25 PM - Arthur Kreymer

I spoke to Andrew Duranceau today 12/02. He is coordinating the www-numi migration.

This is not yet scheduled.

It will likely happen within the next week or so,
or be delayed until after the Christmas/New Year holidays.

I am preparing a list of users needing access.

#4 - 12/03/2015 09:41 AM - Arthur Kreymer

This was completed just before 09:00 12/03.

Not reflected in /web/sites/w/www-numi.fnal.gov/.k5login at 09:30 .

Still not there at 16:00. Will open an INC tomorrow.

-----
Resolved with RITM0318138, this time specifying the correct site user name WWW-NUMI
Somewhat too many people are registered for MINOS, can clean that up later

WHAT ARE WE DOING?

<https://www-numi.fnal.gov> will be served from /web/sites/w/www-numi.fnal.gov instead of /afs/fnal.gov/files/expwww/numi

For details see <https://cdcvs.fnal.gov/redmine/issues/10920>

WHEN WILL THIS OCCUR?

Thursday, Jan 07, 2016 ; 09:00 Central Time

WHAT IS THE IMPACT TO YOU?

There should be no impact to viewers of web pages.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO DO?

You should be able to view www-numi web pages as before.

To update web pages, log into any SLF6 Minos system, or FNALU, and update the files under /web/sites/w/www-numi.fnal.gov .

You need to have a valid kerberos ticket,
and be listed in /web/sites/w/www-numi.fnal.gov/.k5login
