Looks good. ready to merge

#3 - 03/16/2018 02:52 PM - Brian Bockelman

This is a non-standard change to a BSD 3-clause license. Particularly, this part may be worrisome to collaborators as it is unclear how this interacts with the rest of the license:

If software is modified to produce derivative works, such modified software should be clearly marked, so as not to confuse it with the version available from Fermilab.

Could we ask Aaron whether this sentence could be dropped? Or, at least, why the license changed -- rather than just updating and clarifying the copyright holder?

#4 - 03/16/2018 02:57 PM - Parag Mhashilkar

License changed because the previous version of the license was not as per the DOE requirements. Will ask Aaron, if we can drop this sentence.

#5 - 03/19/2018 06:58 AM - Marco Mambelli

Suggested modification approved:

Yes, you can remove it.

Hi Aaron,

Some changes in this license raised concerns with our collaborators. Can we drop the following from the license?

As per Brian, This is a non-standard change to a BSD 3-clause license. Particularly, this part may be worrisome to collaborators as it is unclear how this interacts with the rest of the license:

If software is modified to produce derivative works, such modified software should be clearly marked, so as not to confuse it with the version available from Fermilab.
