Description

From RITM0977583:

"Right now the submission files page (such as https://pomsgpvm01.fnal.gov/poms/campaign\_task\_files/gm2/production?campaign\_stage\_id=6602&tmax=&tdays=7) lists "campaign stage" and "submission jobsub_jobid" as the first two columns. Unfortunately these two columns contain very little useful information to users:

1. "campaign stage" is the same for ALL submissions. Duplicate info.
2. "submission jobsub_jobid" is better replaced by "POMS Submission ID" since this is a POMS page after all (it's highly unlikely for users to identify POMS submissions by jobid instead of POMS submission ID itself).

So the request is to remove #1 and replace #2. This should also help to reduce the overall width of the page and make it more compact, thanks!"

Now the campaign stage is an issue because we also use this same page for whole campaigns, where there are we could instead just have a little javascript bit to toggle the "visible" attribute on the columns...
