Molly Anderson comments: I thought that we decided that the BLI Driver Field was not needed. But the last thing my notes say about this issue is 'Field in data, but can't be seen'. I'm not sure if we need this or not.

Penelope: checked superficially the code and there are references to the driver field. Need to check better in order to disable the field.

#4 - 09/08/2010 02:55 PM - Penelope Constanta

- Assignee set to Penelope Constanta

#5 - 08/20/2012 01:16 PM - Penelope Constanta

- Status changed from Assigned to Resolved

- % Done changed from 0 to 80

The web pages do not show the BLIDriver field. Internally this field is referenced in the code and the queries (views). It will be quite a bit of work to remove it completely.
