Description
Instead of having Asc and desc as sorting options, I would like to recommend using oldest and newest (or old and new). This seems to be very standard jargon for most websites and forums. "Asc" and "Desc" tends to be confusing.

Do you still feel this way? I couldn't fit the words "Newest" and "Oldest" in the select box. Are there other words that also describe this is 4 characters or less??
